

SOUTHERN REGION 4-H VOLUNTEER LEADER FORUM

The Southern Region 4-H Volunteer Leader Forum is an opportunity for volunteer leaders to gain knowledge and skills concerning leadership through sharing with other leaders from the 13 Southern States, the Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico.

Purpose

- Participate in experiences that improve their ability to perform individual 4-H leadership roles
- Learn new skills, information, techniques and resources to enhance the quality of their local 4-H program
- Become knowledgeable about a variety of successful 4-H program activities and systems - through structured and unstructured opportunities
- Share with others the knowledge and skills learned at the forum to multiply the impact of 4-H youth back in the home state, county and club

Location

This event will take place at Rock Eagle 4-H Center, Eatonton, Georgia. This center is roughly located about an hour east of Atlanta.

Date

This event is a four day event and usually takes place the first week in October. Check the Region calendar for exact date.

Eligibility

Any county can send volunteer leaders to this event. Some counties will be selected as scholarship counties and may send leaders who do not have to pay a registration fee. Counties will be informed by the Region if they are considered a scholarship county.

Cost

The cost per delegate is determined each year by the state (unless the delegate is attending on a scholarship as described above).

Specialist

Specialist contact: Carmen Burgos, cburgos@utk.edu, 865-974-2128