

Online Livestock Judging Resources

- <http://worldofagriculture.org/woa-asi.htm> - Lots of links to other websites concerning livestock judging and evaluation.
- <http://www.judging101.com/> - A paid subscription site that offers a free example class.
- <http://extension.usu.edu/cyberlivestock/> - Several online classes of livestock including steers, heifers, lambs, and hogs.
- <http://animalscience.ag.utk.edu/ITCModules/default.htm> - Site for sheep evaluation, selection, and judging.
- <http://extension.missouri.edu/xplor/agguides/ansci/g02952.htm> - An excellent article that should be required reading for all livestock judging team members.
- <http://extension.missouri.edu/explore/agguides/ansci/g02034.htm> - This page deals with the use of performance data in livestock judging.
- <http://ars.sdstate.edu/AnimalEval/evalhome.htm> - Evaluation of live animals with their carcass data.
- <http://www.animal.ufl.edu/youth/Resources/Evaluation/Teaching/index.htm> - Livestock teaching aids from the University of Florida Dept. of Animal Science.
- http://www.michiganffa.com/association/career/skills/livestock\_evaluation.shtml - This Michigan FFA site contains an excellent PowerPoint presentation on Introductory Livestock Judging.
- <http://ansci.colostate.edu/content/view/242/76/> - About a half dozen practice classes of each species with reasons.
- <http://www.livestockjudging.com/resources.aspx> - A new website under construction that already has some good links to other livestock judging resources.